

Colour the Seasons Calendar

Together with your child discuss the months of the year and what you do in each month. You can write down the activities and events that make up your family's traditions for each month. Then have your child colour the winter months blue, the spring months pink, the summer months green and the autumn months orange.

January	February	March
April	May	June
July	August	September
October	November	December